ONE night our hamster got out of her cage, and made her way upstairs. During the night my brother Mark was woken up by a stange noise, wondering what it could be he switched on the light. He looked around the bedroom, to see what the noise was and found the hamster, of all places, in his guitar. What a job we had getting the hamster out of the guitar.

Claire Bendelow, Yorkshire

If Mark hadn't discovered her in the guitar your hamster could have sent a note!

Announcement to Readers

In February 1971 TV Comic was enlarged from 20 to 24 pages and we managed it without putting up the price. Since then, however, costs have increased a great deal and as from next week's issue TV Comic will be priced 5p.

ONE day I was playing football in the recreation ground next to our house, with some other boys. Then I decided to kick the ball up in the air. Much to my surprise my shoe came off as well and all the other boys laughed when it came down on my head.

Keith Allen, Headington

That certainly is letting football go to your head, Keith.

I AM writing to tell you of my unusual pet. It is an Iguana (a large South American tree lizard) and he is about three feet long although still only a baby. He is very tame and sits on my shoulder whenever I take a walk around the garden, occasionally jumping on to an appetising looking plant. If he darted off I would not be able to catch him as he is a very swift runner. If someone annoys him he snaps open his large jaws at them.

He hasn't any teeth, just serrated edges so he does not hurt. He is a vegetarian and has to be kept in a glass-sided box at a temperature of 80°F. He is not very intelligent, but I love him. He will also eat any type of food you offer him!

Steven Pocock, East Preston, West Sussex

ELEVEN-YEAR-OLD Vincent Hudson from Stockport, Cheshire sent us this photograph. He says he has two pets, a cat called Tosh and a talking budgie called Jimmy.

Family funnies

ONE afternoon when I came home from school I said to my mother, "We are having a new student teacher, her name is Miss Der Cach." My mummy thought it was a man because the way it is said sounds like Mr. Cach

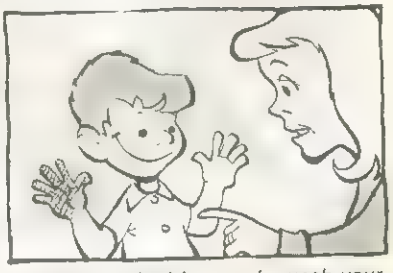
Susan Angel, Stockport

It was a good job your student teachers name was not Miss Der Ree. Your mother really would have been confused.

☆☆☆☆☆☆☆

ONE day my mum was teaching my brother, who is three years old, his left from his right. After she had told him a few times, she pointed to his right hand and said "Which one is this, Stuart?" He said, "The right one." Then she pointed to his left hand and said, "Which one is this then?" He started to laugh and then he said, "The wrong one."

June Knight, Rotherham, Yorks.



Another method is to only wash your left hand but mum wouldn't think that was right!
